Course Description: This course addresses pediatric emergency planning and medical response considerations, needs that were identified in a 2010 report by the National Commission on Children and Disasters. Based on the needs assessment, a training gap exists for emergency responders, first receivers, and emergency management personnel reducing their effectiveness in responding to pediatric patients and their unique needs/considerations. The course addresses pediatric emergency planning and medical response considerations through a combination of lectures, small group exercises, and a table top exercise.

Course Delivery: Emergency Services Training Institute, Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX)

Training is fully funded by a training grant provided by the Department of Homeland Security

Prerequisites: None
